| Respondent. | |

On or around November 4, 2021, JOCELYN GIAMMALVA, a certified peace officer with the Centralia Police Department (CPD), was terminated from employment after knowingly making false and misleading statements during an internal affairs investigation. Such misconduct subjects GIAMMALVA's peace officer certification to discipline under RCW 43.101.105(2)(d), (3)(j)(iv), and (3)(k). The circumstances are as follows:

Count I

Between June 26, 2021 and November 4, 2021, GIAMMALVA knowingly made misleading, deceptive, untrue, or fraudulent representations in the practice of being a peace officer. GIAMMALVA made these statements to CPD officers, including Commander Andy Caldwell, Commander Paul Evers, and Chief Stacy Denham, during an internal affairs investigation. After making these false or misleading statements, GIAMMALVA was terminated from employment with CPD on or around November 4, 2021. GIAMMALVA'S peace officer certification is subject to discipline under RCW 43.101.105(2)(d).

AND/OR

Count II

Between June 26, 2021 and November 4, 2021, GIAMMALVA engaged in conduct that failed to meet the ethical and professional standards of a peace officer and jeopardized public trust in law enforcement when she knowingly made false or misleading statements to CPD officers, as described in Count I. GIAMMALVA'S peace officer certification is subject to discipline under RCW 43.101.105(3)(j)(iv).

COUNT III

On or about November 4, 2021, GIAMMALVA was discharged or otherwise separated from employment with CPD after engaging in the misconduct described in Count I and Count II. GIAMMALVA'S peace officer certification is subject to discipline under RCW 43.101.105(3)(k).

DATED this 17 day of January, 2023.
