BEFORE THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRAINING COMMISSION IN AND FOR THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In re the Certification of
JEFFREY L. INKLEBARGER
Respondent.

NO. 20-775
STATEMENT OF CHARGES

On April 21, 2021, JEFFREY L. INKLEBARGER, a certified peace officer with the Bremerton Police Department, was convicted of multiple felonies under the laws of the State of Washington. These felony convictions implicate RCW 43.101.105(c), and justify revocation of JEFFREY L. INKLEBARGER'S peace officer certification. The felony convictions are as follows:

Count I

On or about February 26 and February 27, 2019, INKLEBARGER, in his capacity as a peace officer, knowingly and falsely completed and signed a return of search warrant inventory, under an oath as required by law and under the penalty of perjury knowing that this return of search warrant inventory would be filed with the Kitsap Coutnty Superior County. On or about April 21, 2021, INKLEBARGER was convicted of Perjury in the First Degree, a class B felony in violation of RCW 9A.72.020, in Kitsap County Superior Court.

1 Count II

2 On or about February 26 and February 27, 2019, INKLEBARGER, in his capacity
3 as a peace officer, did steal cash currency he found while executing a search warrant
4 at a private residence in Bremerton, Washington. On or about April 21, 2021,
5 INKLEBARGER was convicted of Theft in the Second Degree, a class C felony in
6 violation of 9A.56.040, in Kitsap County Superior Court.

7 Count III

8 During the year 2019, INKLEBARGER, in his capacity as a peace officer, forged
9 the signatures of fellow officers and confidential informants on payment receipts to 10 make it appear for accounting purposes that he was paying the funds to confidential
11 informants involved in police investigations, when INKLEBARGER was actually keeping
12 the money for his own personal enrichment. On or about April 21, 2021, INKLEBARGER
13 was convicted of Forgery, a class C felony in violation of 9A.60.020, in Kitsap County
14 Superior Court.
