

Chief of Community Programs and Services

DEPARTMENT: KCSO - Sheriff's Office
DIVISION: Administration
SALARY: $164,278.40 - $208,228.80 Annually
LOCATION: King County Courthouse - 516 3rd Ave, Seattle
JOB TYPE: Appointed
CLOSING DATE: 10/16/22 11:59 PM

SUMMARY:

Who May Apply: This position is open to both current KCSO employees and the public. This position is an Appointed position.

The King County Sheriff's Office (KCSO) is looking for a senior law enforcement professional (Commissioned or Non-Commissioned) to lead their newly created Community Programs and Services Division (CPSD). This new division director position will hold the rank of Division Chief within the Sheriff's Office executive leadership team. This position offers a unique opportunity to lead the development of community programs and to integrate equity & social justice into the work of the Sheriff's Office. As the CPSD Chief, you will also provide leadership of our Communications, Community Engagement, Media Relations, Contracting Unit, and the Community Service Officers. You will also lead the expansion of KCSO co-responder models throughout King County.

The creation and operation of Community Programs & Services Division demonstrates KCSO's belief in and commitment to the evolution of law enforcement. This position will focus on building and expanding KCSO's relationship with community and then use those connections to improve public safety and expand recruiting, alternative policing, ESJ efforts, and communications.

Although the Sheriff's Office generally hires from within for senior leader positions, KCSO is broadening the pool of potential candidates to include those from outside the agency. Division Chiefs report to the Undersheriff (#2 position) in the Sheriff's Office, but there is daily interaction with the Sheriff and other members of the Executive Team. The candidate selected for the assignment will be appointed by the Sheriff.

JOB DUTIES:

- Implementing policy decisions of the Sheriff's Office and supporting the goals, work?plan, and community focused initiatives

- Monitor crime trends and coordinate efforts to reduce crime by leading the development of innovative community-based programs

- Lead evaluation and expansion of law enforcement co responder programs throughout KCSO service area.
- Champion and lead implementation of pro equity programs throughout KCSO.
- Attending meetings with King County Executives, KC Council, KC Police Chiefs and community organizations
- Working with staff to develop progressive and innovative policing programs for improving community/police trust and partnerships
- Developing and leading non-traditional recruiting programs to enhance the diversity of Sheriff's Office employees

EXPERIENCE, QUALIFICATIONS, KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS:

Minimum Education and Experience Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree, preferably in public administration or related field, and progressive leadership experience
- You must have a minimum of 5 years of management level experience as either a civilian or commissioned manager in a medium to large law enforcement agency. The applicant must have a breadth of law enforcement experience in administration and operations
- Or any combination of education and experience that clearly demonstrates the ability to perform the job duties of the position

Desired Qualifications and Skills:

- Ability to actively engage with the community in a professional and approachable manner that promotes and maintains trust between community and King County government
- Demonstrated ability to lead a police agency at a division director level in implementing community engagement policing strategies, programs and services
- Experience in working with equity and social justice programs and initiatives
- Strong administrative skills
- Demonstrated respect among peers and supervisors
- Excellent organizational, time management, and communication skills
- Adept at delivering prompt and responsive customer service; able to promote the same expectations at all levels in the organization
- Committed to leading, inspiring, and supporting both commissioned and professional staff in their daily work
- Able to work effectively and collaboratively with King County Council, Executive's Office and the Sheriff's Office leadership team
- Able to set an example for and mentor subordinates on successfully working in a team environment
- Ability to look for and implement creative solutions to address concerns by collaborating with human services agencies, police personnel, and community members
- Basic understanding of contracting and police department budgeting
- Willing to attend evening community meetings and other events outside of regular business hours
- Demonstrated abilities as a problem solver
- Self-motivated and takes the initiative to get things done
- Demonstrate knowledge of the unique demographics of King County
- Experience in developing recruiting programs that focus on diversification of the work force

Application Process: To be considered for this position, the following items must be completed. Your cover letter will be evaluated for grammar, punctuation, and clarity.

- King County Application (applying online satisfies this requirement)
- Letter of Interest (Cover letter) detailing how your qualifications and experience meet or exceed the minimum qualifications stated in this job bulletin
