WHO: Course is open to law enforcement and military only

DETAILS: This two day course will prepare first responders for the likelihood of a forced entry breach on an active shooter/active terrorist event. Students will learn safety protocols, carry methods, and deployment strategies of the shot gun as used for breaching. Students will also demonstrate learned techniques by teaching others during the course.

Students will need any/all deployment gear assigned to them or gear that they would actually deploy with.

INSTRUCTOR: Lead instructor, Nick Minzghor, is a retired 28+ year Master Police Officer from King County Sheriff's Office and Marine veteran. Nick spent 6 years on the SWAT team as a sniper and was assigned to the Tactical Training Unit. Nick developed or co-developed every firearms program in use at his department today. He also helped develop the current CJTC Basic Sniper School, taught Basic SWAT and served as the King County board rep on WSTOA. He has been involved in the development and delivery of various active shooter programs since 2001. Nick is a competitive shooter, ranked as Master with USPSA and holds a Shodan ranking in Yang Ki Yin JiuJitsu.
