INTERAGENCY AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

WASHINGTON STATE CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRAINING COMMISSION

AND

The Snoqualmie Indian Tribe

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into by and between the WASHINGTON STATE CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRAINING COMMISSION (“Commission”) and the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe, (“Tribal Agency”), an Indian Tribe recognized by the United States, subject to the requirements of Chapter 39.34 RCW.

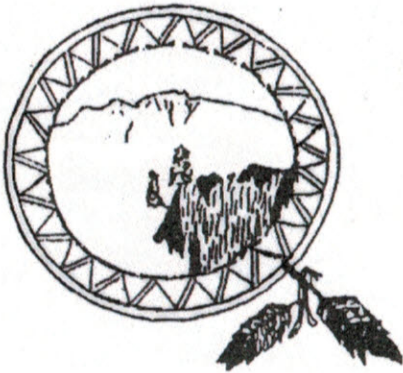

Pursuant to RCW 43.101.157, the Tribal Agency is voluntarily requesting certification for their police officers by the Commission.

THEREFORE, IT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS AGREEMENT to state and clarify the obligations of the Tribal Agency and its law enforcement officers for compliance with the requirements of the Commission concerning the granting, denying, and revoking certification of tribal peace officers. This agreement will empower the Commission to provide certification for tribal law enforcement officers of the Tribal Agency, subject to the provisions of RCW 43.101.157 and 43.101.095 et seq.

THEREFORE, IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED THAT:

By entering into this agreement, the Tribal Agency agrees to comply with the requirements of peace officer certification as set forth Chapter 43.101 RCW, Chapter 139-06 WAC, and any other laws and regulations governing peace officer certification in the State of Washington. The Tribal Agency agrees to provide the Commission with notification and all information to enforce the revocation of peace officer certification granted through this agreement, as described in RCW 43.101.135.

The Commission agrees to maintain certification records for tribal law enforcement officers of the Tribal Agency, and recognize tribal law enforcement officers of that agency as “certified tribal law enforcement officers.” The Commission will not grant certification

Re: Snoqualmie Tribe's Request for Tribal Law Enforcement Officer Certification

Sonja,

The Snoqualmie Indian Tribe would like to request Washington Peace Officer Certification for the Chief of the Snoqualmie Tribal Police Services, Chief Duane Garvais Lawerence. To facilitate that certification, we are enclosing the following documents:

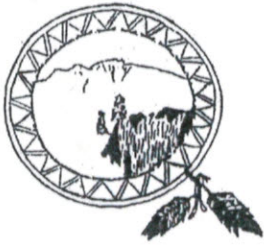

- Snoqualmie Tribal Council Resolution No. 149-08, authorizing the Chairman to sign the Interagency Agreement with the Washington Criminal Justice Training Commission.
- Proposed Interagency Agreement between the Washington Criminal Justice Training Commission and the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe (signed by Tribal Chairman and Chief of Tribal Police Services).
- Tribal Law Enforcement Officer Certification Application signed by Chief Garvais Lawerence.
- Peace Officer Certification Application signed by Chief Garvais Lawerence.
- Notice of Hire/Termination Form.

It is my understanding that these are all of the documents that you need to process our certification request. We would greatly appreciate if you could process our request as soon as possible, so we can move forward with our Interlocal Agreement negotiations with King County to obtain General Washington Peace Officer Authority under the new law. If you have any questions, please contact me at (206) 696-2851.

Sincerely,

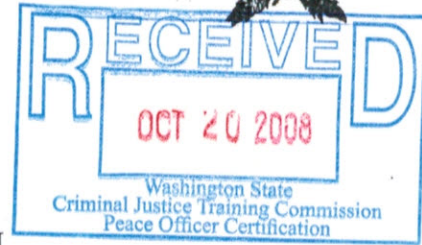

Andrea K. Rodgers Harris
