Executive Summary

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5187 of the 2023 Legislature provides funding for an accreditation incentive award program to support law enforcement agencies to achieve accreditation through a national or state accrediting entity. The two accrediting entities recognized by the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission are the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Standards (CALEA) and the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC).

Grant Allocation Process

Law enforcement agencies were alerted to submit accreditation or re-accreditation certification documents by email between the dates of July 1, 2023, and June 15, 2024.

Funds were distributed after the June 15, 2024, deadline.

Funds were disbursed evenly to all who achieve accreditation or re-accreditation with a cap of $50,000 per organization.
